

Mountain Lakes High School
Alumni Hall of Fame

Induction Ceremony
October 5, 2018

Larry Blake Class of 1965

Mr. Larry Blake was an outstanding student athlete at MLHS where he achieved one of New Jersey's most dominant tennis careers, going 63-0, including four consecutive state championships. In 1963, Mr. Blake was nationally ranked in the USTA Boys 16 and under division in both singles and doubles. He was also a member of the National Honor Society and was awarded the 1965 Citizenship Award for outstanding service to MLHS.

Mr. Blake attended Colgate University and excelled once again athletically and academically. He led the Colgate tennis team to a top five ranking in D1 East, and was elected Senior Class President.

After graduating with a BA in Economics, Mr. Blake began his career in the steel industry. He went on to become Vice President Commercial of the 2.5 billion-dollar Bethlehem Steel Corporation Eastern Division and was nationally recognized as an outstanding commercial executive in the US steel industry. Over the years, Mr. Blake has continued his executive education at the University of Michigan, Duke University, and Harvard Business School.

After leaving Bethlehem Steel, Mr. Blake became a partner in Penn Capital Group, an investment banking firm that assists private business owners to sell their companies.

As MLHS Senior Class President, he has been an active member of his alumni class including running their 50th reunion. Mr. Blake is married to Jackie, his wife of fifty years, and is the proud father of three children.

Mary Kate Menard

Class of 1977

Dr. Kate Menard has touched many lives as a physician and professor of medicine. She currently serves as Vice Chair of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and Director of Maternal Fetal Medicine at the University of North Carolina School of Medicine.

After graduating from MLHS, Dr. Menard received her B.S. with Honors in Zoology and Psychology from Duke University. She earned her M.D. from New Jersey Medical School. She completed her residency training in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania before pursuing a Fellowship in Maternal Fetal Medicine at the University of North Carolina.

While a fellow at UNC, she also completed a Master's degree in Public Health as a Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholar. She served on faculty at the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston, and was an active clinician educator, a consultant to the South Carolina Department of Health, and the Chief Medical Officer and Associate Dean at the Medical University of South Carolina.

Throughout her career, Dr. Menard has worked at the intersect between public health and the everyday challenges and joys of clinical Obstetric care. She has served in numerous leadership roles including President of the Society for Maternal Fetal Medicine (SMFM) and President of the North Carolina Obstetric and Gynecological Society. She has been a champion for developing systems of care to improve maternal health and safety and infant outcomes. Dr. Menard is grateful for her experience at MLHS where teamwork and leadership skills were nurtured, opening a life of endless possibilities.

Anne Mullaney Class of 1974

Ms. Anne Mullaney received degrees from Saint Mary's College (Notre Dame, IN), George Washington University, and Duquesne Law School. In 2014, she was inducted into Saint Mary's College Hall of Fame.

Ms. Mullaney was named the Chief Administration Officer at the Ohio Valley Medical Center and Wheeling Hospital in Wheeling, West Virginia, and later became a successful attorney with one of Pittsburgh's leading law firms.

Ms. Mullaney dedicated much of her time and attention to public health issues and those living in poverty. Her work included helping patients meet the end of life with dignity and grace in a compassionate environment.

One of her proudest accomplishments was being a local business owner, establishing Mullaney's Heart and Fiddle Irish Pub in 1992. The pub has become a key fixture in the economic recovery of "the Strip" section of downtown Pittsburgh, PA, and Ms. Mullaney was a pioneer in the cultural revival of the city of Pittsburgh. In recognition of her civic leadership, she was named a "Legend of the Strip" by community-development organization Strip District Neighbors. The award was given shortly before Anne's 2011 death from glioblastoma. In the last years of her life, she committed to raising funds through Partners in Progress which resulted in the establishment of a school in the impoverished Deslandes region of Haiti.

Following her death, Ms. Mullaney's family and classmates continued her dream and raised over $250,000 as part of the "Friends of Anne Mullaney" campaign.

Lindsey Munday

Class of 2002

Ms. Lindsey Munday is one of the most accomplished collegiate women's lacrosse players in the history of the sport.

Her accolades both as a player and as a coach earned her recognition as Lacrosse Magazine's 2013 Person of the Year and Inside Lacrosse's Coach of the Year in 2016.

In addition, she is a two-time Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Coach of the Year and the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association West/Midwest Coach of the Year.

After a stellar career at MLHS as a soccer, basketball, and lacrosse player, Ms. Munday went on to Northwestern University, receiving her degree in Communications in 2006. She led Northwestern to the Women's Lacrosse National Championships as a player in 2005 and 2006. She represented the USA on the National Team winning gold medals in 2009 (receiving All-World recognition) and again in 2013.

Ms. Munday began her coaching career as an assistant at Northwestern winning three more National Championships from 2007-2009. Ms. Munday was only 26 years old when she was hired to be the first head women's lacrosse coach at University of Southern California where she will be coaching her sixth season this spring.

During her tenure at USC, the women's lacrosse team has consistently found success, being ranked nationally and earning berths in the NCAA tournament multiple times.

Sean Murphy Class of 1999

Mr. Sean Murphy was a Co-Valedictorian at MLHS, captain of the football team, and a member of the lacrosse team. He attended Yale University where he earned his degree in Political Science and was a walk-on member of the varsity lacrosse team.

Mr. Murphy began his financial career fifteen years ago as an Analyst and Associate at the Investment Banking and Private Equity divisions of Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. He was also a Vice President and later Managing Director at Angelo, Gordon and Co. He spent nine years there sourcing and completing private equity transactions across a number of industries, including Consumer / Retail, Business Services, and Financial Services.

After leaving Angelo, Gordon & Co., he went on to become Co-Head and Partner at the Structured Capital Fund of Harvest Partners, where he currently helps to oversee ~$1.7 billion of raised and invested capital. Throughout his career, Mr. Murphy has been fortunate to serve on the Board of Directors for over 15 different companies including Benihana, Firebirds, Gehl Foods, King's Food Markets, OTG Management, Roland Foods, and VetCor.

In 2009 Mr. Murphy was a Co-Founder of the Bulldogs Care Foundation. This organization raised over one $1 million to support disadvantaged youth in the Tri-State area as they pursued student-athlete opportunities. The charity was established in honor of several of Mr. Murphy's Yale lacrosse teammates who had passed away in an accident. Mr. Murphy lives in New York City with his wife Jessica and two children.

Bob Shaw

Class of 1975

Mr. Bob Shaw knew in high school that he wanted to pursue a career as a designer of scenery.

Today, he is a well-known and highly respected member of the entertainment industry, with work on stage, screen, and television in the field of Scenic Design and Production Design.

Mr. Shaw has been recognized widely for his work, garnering multiple Primetime Emmy nominations for “Outstanding Art Direction” for The Sopranos in 2000, 2001, and 2004.

He has won two Primetime Emmy Awards which acknowledge excellence in the television industry and emerging media. He received an Emmy in 2011 for “Outstanding Art Direction for A Single Camera Series” for HBO’s Boardwalk Empire. He also won an Emmy for “Outstanding Art Direction for A Single Camera Series” in 2008 for his work on AMC’s Mad Men.

Mr. Shaw has received significant recognition for “Excellence in Production Design” as Head of Production for The Wolf of Wall Street (2013) as well as his work on other films and television series.

In addition, Mr. Shaw has worked on the Broadway productions of The Pirates of Penzance and Coastal Disturbances. He is the Head of Production for The Irishman (2019).

